Dear Sir:

You probably won't remember my name, but I am asking a favor of you. I am presently applying for a commission in the U.S. Army and would appreciate it if you could find time to write me a letter of recommendation. I am presently [redacted] in the U.S. Navy but with the rating that I am in becoming harder to advance I thought that I would try the other branch of service now that it is open.
Thank you.
